

Jacobs Levy Center Conference – April 25, 2014
Closing Remarks
Christopher Geczy, Academic Director

This concludes the Jacobs Levy Center Conference. I'd like to take a moment to thank today's presenters and discussants—today's discussions were truly thought provoking.

I welcome everyone to join us for the conference's closing reception. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres are now being served across the hall.

Thank you again for attending. I look forward to seeing you at a future Jacobs Levy Center event.
